PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Hello Brooweena Community,

The highly anticipated Year 3 – 6 camp is only two sleeps away! The weather forecast looks fantastic...sunshine all week, with temperatures in the mid-twenties.

North Keppel Island, here we come!

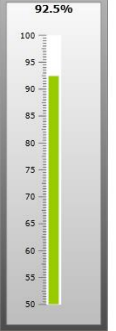

Next Thursday is the small school athletics carnival at Tinana Athletics Oval (yes, this is correct ☺). A note regarding the travel arrangements was sent home earlier this week. Please make sure that it is returned on Monday, so that any transport for children unable to be taken by their own parents can be arranged. As I will be away, Mrs Elliott, will be confirming the details.

Parent teacher interviews will be held in week 11. Please complete the timetable if you would like an interview.

Have a great fortnight.

BELIEVE, ACHIEVE, SUCCEED

On Wednesday we all went to visit the Rural Fire Brigade as part of Rural Fire Brigade week. Thank you to Lesley and Bill for inviting us over. The children had a wonderful time practicing to be future fire fighters.

Following our Rural Fire Brigade visit, we were lucky enough to visit the Historical Museum. Here we enjoyed making some chaff for Ms Gauld's horse, cracked some corn and enjoyed learning about all of the great historical exhibits at the museum. Well done to Cane on such wonderful thank you speeches.
