From the Principal

Welcome back - 2015 promises to be another great year for learning!

We are pleased to welcome two new families to our school community.

Teaching staff for 2015.

Mr Halley is still our physical education teacher on Tuesday mornings.

Mrs Shari Ward is our music teacher on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs Samantha Williams is taking Japanese lessons.

Mrs Carolyn Holmes will be with us on a Friday.

We all look forward to their contributions towards our students' education.

David Teefy

Facilities - A repaint of the interior of our main building occurred during the break.

Volunteers Expressions of interest are being called for volunteers for our school to support the curriculum [like support-a-reader etc]. If you are interested please contact the school for more details.

P & C News

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING
24th February 2015
3pm at the school
All welcome.

Wow - we have had an amazing start to 2015 with our fundraising on election day. With such short notice we have managed to raise $220 from donations and a cake stall. Thanks so much to everyone who provided sales items.

Our AGM is on Tuesday 24th February and we urge all families to consider joining our P & C - if you would like the form - please contact a committee member or the school.
